

The George Hotel

Last Updated Friday, 09 March 2007

The George Hotel and Brasserie is one of Cranbrook's landmark buildings dating back to the 14th century.

Guests can easily access local attractions as well as enjoy the relaxing ambience of the hotel itself.

The George Hotel and Brasserie is a refreshing example of how striking period features can be supported with a modern contemporary decor.

The interior is sophisticated whilst maintaining the attraction of candlelit tables and log fires.
